P
Chicago Public School's first Performing Arts HS, the school opened in the Fall of 2009. It will proudly graduate its first class of seniors in the Spring of 2013. The school's Honors Jazz Combo is one of the school's premier groups. The group has garnered significant recognition in the recent two years having performed at the 2012 Chicago Jazz Festival, along side the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, as winner in the CSO Young Artists Competition, and in Thelonius Monk Institute.

Doublers Collective
12:00pm-12:50pm
LeJENDs/Regency V - ATLL1

PP
A Progressive jazz saxophone quintet performing at a high caliber, this enthusiastic group was brought together by a fierce passion for jazz, improvisation and exploring the color and sonority possibilities available when playing multiple instruments. Doublers Collective collaborated with top composers to create new works and premiere them at this JEN conference.

A Chromatic Approach to Jazz Harmony & Melody
Dave Liebman, clinician
1:00pm-1:50pm
Embassy Hall E/F - ITLL2
C-Improv-I

An overview of some of the techniques described in his book on the subject, which he teaches in the Master's program at the Manhattan School of Music. The entire concept strives to answer the question posed after Coltrane's innovations: How does an improviser find notes to play outside the prescribed harmonic agenda of a progression in a logical and musical way?
